United States Government
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

I am writing to invite you to participate in a "Law and National Security Speakers Series" to be held at the University of Virginia School of Law during the 1983-84 academic year.

This Speakers Series is being sponsored jointly by the Student Legal Forum and the Center for Law and National Security. As a way of unifying the appearances of various speakers throughout the year, we are requesting that each speaker's presentation be organized around one of the following general themes: (1) Arms Control; (2) Central America; (3) Defense Spending; and (4) Human Rights.

The Legal Forum has a long tradition of attracting outstanding speakers to Charlottesville which we hope to be able to continue with this Speakers Series. A brochure describing the activities of the Legal Forum and listing some of the speakers who have appeared in the past is enclosed for your information.

Should you decide to accept our invitation, the format of your appearance here would be as follows: dinner with interested law students and faculty; followed by your speech; followed by a reception open to the public. Legal Forum speeches are well-publicized in advance to ensure a sizable audience and extensive coverage by the regional news media. The Legal Forum cannot pay an honorarium but will make all necessary travel and lodging arrangements and pay for those expenses.

If you would like to participate in this Speakers Series, we would appreciate receiving a tentative commitment to appear (not necessarily including a firm date) by the middle of August. Between now and that time you can reach me weekdays at: Hunton & Williams, 707 East Main Street, P.O. Box 1535, Richmond, Virginia 23212 (Telephone: 804/788-8200). Or you can reach me at home nights and weekends at: [redacted] of course, please feel free to contact me if you would like to discuss further what we have contemplated.

In closing, I hope that you will be able to accept our invitation and look forward to hearing from you soon.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Michael J. Lockerby
President
